MyLibertyAssist EAP: Web Services

The MyLibertyAssist website is user-friendly and offers practical EAP-related information that addresses emotional well being, health and wellness and daily living concerns. Available resources include interactive self-assessments, a comprehensive library of articles and guides and financial calculators. The website provides employees and their immediate family members with the information they need, 24 hours a day, seven days a week and is conveniently organized in the following categories:

Emotional Wellbeing: Self help tools, self-assessments and information on emotional resilience, self esteem, and grief and bereavement, as well as how to access help for conditions such as anxiety, depression and addiction.

Family Life: Resources to help address responsibilities and issues concerning family, such as pregnancy, child care, parenting, child and adolescent development, and elder care. This site also includes a locator that allows users to search for child and elder care options.

Healthy Living: Tips and articles on maintaining a healthy lifestyle. Topics include alcohol and substance abuse, nutrition, exercise, weight loss, wellness, and stress reduction.

Leadership Skills: Employee and supervisor work performance toolboxes with articles, videos and information to help develop workplace and leadership skills. Information on managing work-related issues such as conflict and communication are also available.

Legal/Financial Resources: Articles to help address financial and legal questions, such as debt, investments, retirement, taxes, bankruptcy, wills and estate planning, and identity theft. Financial calculators are also available for the following topics:

- Mortgage
- Loan
- Auto
- Credit cards and debt management
- Savings
